

Mr. Abu Morlai Kamara's Bio

Abu Morlai Kamara is an accomplished Financial Services Professional based in Fairfax, Virginia. With extensive experience in investment strategies and customer relationship management, he has demonstrated a strong ability to create comprehensive financial plans that enhance client satisfaction and drive investment performance. Currently working as a Financial Services Professional, Kamara assesses clients' financial goals and risk tolerance, advising on a range of products including mutual funds, stocks, bonds, and insurance. He is skilled in financial modeling and tax rectification, having previously worked as a Tax Associate at Gumax Accounting Services in Virginia.

Kamara's career also includes experience as an Assistant Finance Officer at COMAHS, USL in Sierra Leone, where he managed financial reporting, asset coordination, and annual audits. His earlier role as an Inspector with NASSIT in Sierra Leone further honed his skills in inspections, conflict resolution, and reporting.

He holds an MBA in Auditing & Taxation from Strayer University, a master's degree in Finance & Accounting from IPAM, USL, and a Bachelor's degree in Financial Services from IPAM, USL.